

Firemen Escape Death in $100,000 Blaze

$100,000 BROOKLYN FIRE.

Twenty firemen narrowly escaped death in four-alarm fire at 139-43 33d St., Brooklyn, when roof collapsed as they were fighting flames. Photo shows fire as second alarm was sent in. (Photo Graphic.)

BLIND BUT HAPPY

Handicap of blindness didn't keep youngsters from enjoying Halloween party at New York Association for the Blind. Photo shows happy trio ducking for the apple. (Photo Graphic.)

KLUXERS DOLL UP

Preparing for procession through Hackensack, N. J., streets, the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan No. 70 met in open field and donned regalia as shown above. (Photo Graphic.)

Shows She Is Human

MRS. HALL'S "OWN" PHOTO.

So that newspaper readers won't form a bad opinion of her on basis of photos which she says make her appear "a terrible, ugly, scheming woman," Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall has ordered thirty-two special pictures made of her on eve of trial for murder of Dr. Hall. Photo above is one of her favorites. (Photo Turner.)

IT WAS A KNOCKOUT!

Free-for-all battle in Submarine Night Club terminated when Alice Allsing (above), 28, owner, is alleged to have knocked unconscious Betty Sullivan, 18, an entertainer. Miss Allsing was held in $1,500 bail in Jefferson Market Court. (Photo Graphic.)